The Nottingham News

Message from Director Rick Littlefield

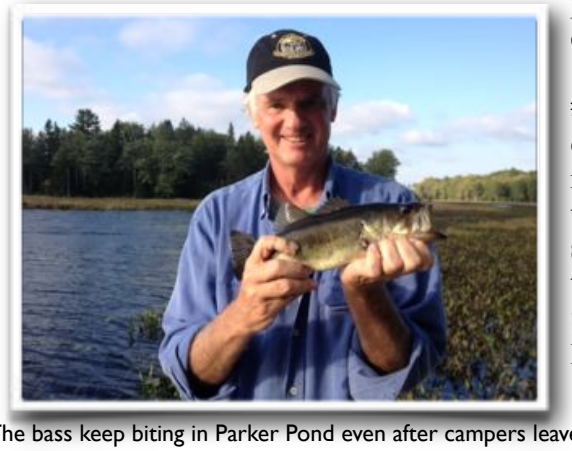
The first question most campers and many parents ask me each fall and winter is, "What's going to be new at Robin Hood next summer?" This past summer's major improvements included two new asphalt tennis courts, the first "semi-luxury" cabin, Bernice, for CIT girls, and a new location for Arts & Crafts.
Here are a few major changes already in the works for 2013:

#1. The purchase of another wakeboard boat to enhance the popular Wakeboard program.

#2. The renovation of up to six camper cabins in the style of the more luxurious cabin Bernice with new floors and more than double the shelving storage space along walls. King Richard, Outpost and Inpost will be the first three cabins to be renovated. Depending upon the speed of progress this Fall and Winter, we will announce which other cabins will renovated.

#3. My wife Robin and I will spend at least one half of the Fall in Boston, Maine and New York to be closer to our daughters Annalee, Camille and Tanya and to be a more active Robin Hood presence on the east coast while overseeing construction progress at camp.

#4. An expanded recruiting travel schedule in the United States this Fall.



The bass keep biting in Parker Pond even after campers leave!

Nottingham Fair Production

"Robin Hood: The Musical"

Written and directed by the musically talented young playwright counselor Will Ropp--the older brother of campers Tommy & Susie Ropp--Robin Hood parents enjoyed an original musical /comedy production starring Veronica Moreno, Tommy Ropp, Isabella Herrera, Daniel Moreno, Eliana Siegmund, Victoria Pardo, Venezia Stene-Nyholm, Charles Williams, Daniel Moreno, Michelle Rosen, Allegra Giordano, Charlotte Perez, Anna Pitts, Sophia Tarbell-Arnaboldi, Flora Weil, Anushka Canfield and Luisa Ball.

Congratulations to all who participated in this Robin Hood tradition. A thank you also to Will Ropp and Josh Willits, who collaborated on the music.

Greens Win the Year! Again!

Don't accuse the Green- Scarlet competition of being rigged! Master score keeper Brenton Arnaboldi, a true Scarlet loyalist through and through (even though his father was a Green!), checked and re-checked his point totals and sadly concluded the Greens had won again for the fourth time in a row.

The Scarlets were dominating the second half of the season and won every NHFD song contest practice yet when the Fair night arrived, the Greens upset the Scarlets in stunning fashion by the vote of the mostly Scarlet Alumni judges.

Congratulations to Green Captains Paige Whitney and Max Peponis (who enjoyed a big day also winning the Robin Hood Cup), Senior Lieutenants Andrew Minder and Susie Ropp, Middler Lieutenants Anthony Minder and Coleen Cullinane, and Jr. Lieutenants Tommy Ropp and Elizabeth Schnell. Congrats and consolations go to the Scarlet leadership team Captains Kevin Zajkowski, and Victoria Pardo, Senior Lieutenants Alex Moreno and Veronica Moreno, Middler Lieutenants Maxwell Arnold and Fabiana Muci and Junior Lieutenants Esteban Puyana and Sophia Tarbell-Arnaboldi.

Congratulations to the winners of this summer's Robin Hood Activity Cups awarded at the Awards Banquet at the end of camp! Trophy cups winners are selected by the activity counselors and given to the boy and girl campers considered to be the most outstanding, dedicated and talented camper participant in their activity. The most popular activities often award more than one cup for each gender due to the large number of camper participants.
